Buipe Network Training

About a week ago we were blessed by a man with 30 years of experience with Disciple Making Movements (DMM). He had trained Amy and I before coming to Ghana and graciously paid his own travel expenses from a very long distance away. His organization has given us a grant that has allowed us to accelerate our DMM work. He had been hearing some good reports and wanted to come and see for himself what was happening.

He met with both the Buipe and Tamale networks and was a big hit. He also spent time with just Amy and I helping us process next steps in the work.

One of the long term ways Amy and I hope to continue helping networks we have coached is connecting them to what God is doing with DMM around the world. Check out hill111.com and <https://www.zumeproject.com/>

What Amy and I are doing in Ghana is partnering with what these two websites are promoting. Team Expansion, one of our sending organization is involved heavily in the Zume project. If everyone accepts the responsibility of being disciples that make multiplying disciples we can finish the task of making disciples of all nations in our lifetime. May God be glorified!

Damongo Kairos Training

Did you ever wonder what your favorite Team Expansion worker does every day? Find out today by using a brand new online course, launched Feb. 14th. It's called "Zume." (No relation to Zoomba — and you don't even need special pants.) It's a collection of tools, skills, and behaviors that will help you become a disciple worth multiplying, then transfer your spiritual walk to others. You'll experience 9 lessons for starters, 2 hours per session. There's no book to buy, nor dvd to rent. You WILL need a group of 4 – 12 people (including you), a willing heart, and a passion for Christ. Once you've finished the 9 sessions (maybe 1 session per week?), you'll know how to multiply disciples, Zume groups, simple churches and more — just like your favorite Team Expansion worker! Get started today at www.ZumeProject.com. Hope to see you there soon!
