

Kefas and Power, two Disciple Making Movement (DMM) practitioners, held a training with 31 participants in Niger. At the end of the training they wrote 90 plans for implementation. Pray for Kefas and Power as they coach these new trainees to make disciples that make disciples until the great commission is completed. Matthew 28:18-20

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Joshua's Gift

This past Christmas, my buddy, Greg, thought little of it when his 9-year-old son, Joshua, asked for some wood for a project. Greg dutifully found him some boards in the garage. Then on Christmas Eve, Greg's wife, Heather, asked for lessons on the electric drill because she "needed to teach Joshua." I'm sure Greg swallowed hard, but Heather assured him it would be ok. Christmas morning brought the big reveal. Joshua had built (totally on his own) a huge wooden letter "H," assembled from those boards, bearing the handwritten words, "My Dad: My Hero!" (See candid pictures from Greg's Christmas morning on the web at www.brigada.org/Joshua.) You might sometimes think that your efforts for the Father are meager. But apparently that's why He gave us free will. Accordingly, never underestimate how much it means to the Father when you do your best in a project for Him. Have a great month!

Doug

LENT

"You're blessed when you're at the end of your rope. With less of you there is more of God and his rule. You're blessed when you feel you've lost what is most dear to you. Only then can you be embraced by the One most dear to you." Matthew 5:3-4 MSG

I don't know about you, but we never celebrated Lent in our home or our church family. Of course, we celebrated the resurrection of Jesus Christ, the center of our relationship with God, but there wasn't a lot of emphasis on preparing for Easter. I remember when I was young, I had a great Aunt Mary who purchased new clothes from the inside out for the three of us kids and that was when everyone really dressed up for Easter - hats, gloves, purses, spring coats, the works. But, it wasn't until more recent years that I have begun to explore the preparation for Easter, not in a legalistic way, but in contemplation, repentance, emptying of self, focusing on listening for God's voice throughout each day. I have found that by denying myself of things that tend to occupy my daily life, I am freer to engage with my creator. This year I am focusing on memorizing the beatitudes. It is from these verses from my first week that I am learning to be "less of me" and "more of God and His rule." And, losing it all to be embraced by Christ alone. God bless each & every one of you. Thank you for making it possible for us to see the amazing work God is doing in Africa to bring His children back to Himself.
